Reign - The Realm of Divine Leadership and Influence

REIGN

A Christian Personal Growth & Ambassadorial Development Education & Training Programme based on our Kingdom Founder's V.M.V. His New Testament Charter – to Build and Strengthen Effective Relationships in The Acumen of The Kingdom of Heaven – to Increase Christ's Governing Kingdom Presence & Dominance through each of us in our Growing World.

Episode 5

Shush!! We are not here to just do a 'job' and fill in some 'time'! We are here to ...

'REIGN'

The first four episodes of 'REIGN' are the introduction and outline. Today in episode 5, we are going to begin the induction and orientation program which will show you how to be aligned in the spirit of your mind by God the Spirit's Anointing, since we have the 'Mind of Christ'—the 'Anointed Mind' that we have received from our heavenly Father.

WELCOME TO REIGN

This is the beginning, where the foundational shift must take place in your subconscious being. Where your governing thoughts must be made or replaced by the spirit of your heavenly Father! This is how you will learn to rule over 'Yourself' i.e. Your Soul and its realm—Your 'House' i.e. your Body and its realm—Your whole 'Beings Domain' i.e. Your Spirit and its realm. If you can't rule these three personal areas you can't reign in God's Realm nor in any area your Heavenly Father created for you in Christ Jesus, the Logos and Lord of all. To reign in any God given realm we must first learn to rule our total being—just like Jesus the last Adam had to do—see He 4:15, 5:8-10. This is because you and I are children of God.

- As a child your dispositional prevailing foundation must become a student in order for your non-aligned thoughts to change into leading benchmark cultural DNA skills, actions, or deeds in your realm, domain/market, in persona, to reign, rule, to lead as people via your heavenly source to match your Father's nature and/or as a family organisation, maybe even becoming a worldwide institution full of godly people who are like our Father in heaven.
- First foundational shift—you don't have a job, nor an occupation, an office or a position to boast or not—in wealth, power, or prestige. None of these are your identity. Whatever you leave behind when you die you don't own, is not your identity, is not and never was you. To think you are or have any of these while on earth, is to place yourself in prison, which won't allow change. It is time to change your thinking, especially about who you think you are and are not.
- Servants have jobs for a fee determined by others. Jesus said, "Let him who would be greatest among you be the servant of all!" Therefore, you must be happy with how they pay or reward you or not! You do not get paid according to your greatness of any form. You serve out of your riches which lead you to greatness and the allegiance of all. You do not serve others to get their riches as this makes you lecherous and indebted to them.
- Slaves have occupations based on the meagre gratuities of the whim and will of their masters. If someone else is running your life and determining your living conditions you are enslaved and currently bound by them and possibly to them. That makes a bad marriage of unequally yoking which always destroys the smaller weaker person/animal. You cannot yoke a donkey with an elephant. The elephant will end up destroying the donkey—even if it doesn't want to!
- You have a responsibility to 'Reign'!
- It is a calling to a Vision and Mission with its own intrinsic Values. It is priceless! It is what your heavenly Father says you are to be and become!
 1. This means you must build a new and more aligned view of yourself.
 2. Develop a greater value of yourself.
 3. Express a new and higher appreciation about yourself and what you can and will become and do, and
 4. Discover a richer supply for wealth creation in yourself that you perhaps never knew was there.

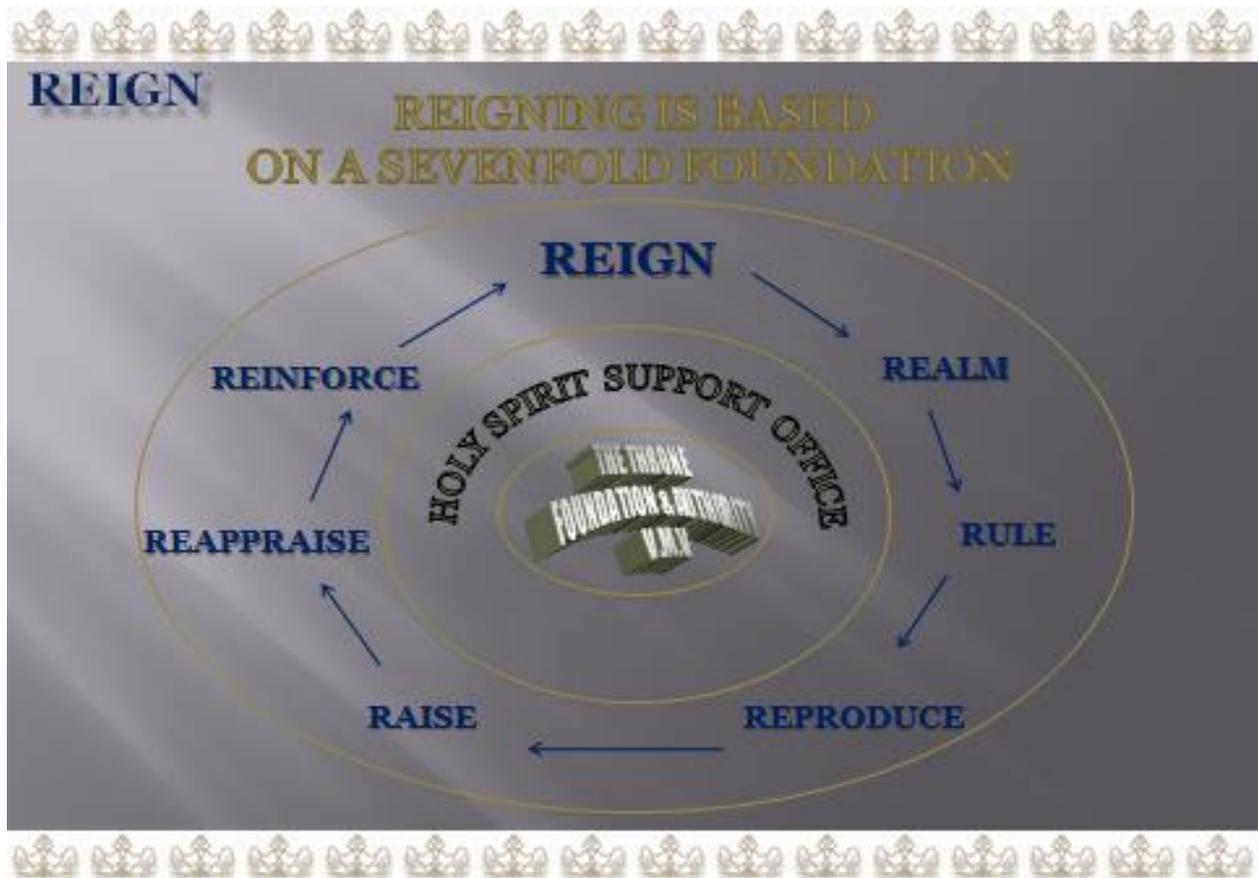

REIGN

- Put this all together as God’s family/team and we will change the world by our ruling and reigning.

Reigning is Based on a Sevenfold Foundation

To Reign is a Pathway of Purpose

This Founding Trajectory is our Personal & Corporate Pathway of Leadership and Influence in God’s Realm—The Kingdom of Heaven—for This World that God Loves.

We may only rule and reign from the throne of Grace in this life but will be seated with Jesus Christ on His throne for eternity once we overcome all He Himself overcame.

These are the seven steps of ascent and the foundation stones that must be laid within us in order for us to reign and to build and expand our reign without. We are living stones being built up by God into a Spiritual house in which God and all of His children are destined to live.

This cycle is continuous. It never ends. It is living and operative in all living species and things.

Question:

Which of these seven if missing will cause our reign to cease?

REIGN	Over myself	to become...	leader of People
REALM	To Know All I’m Given	to become...	leader of Domains

PS You are permitted to forward to others at your discretion in our Lord

REIGN

02/10/2023

RULE	My Natural Being	to become...	leader of Government
REPRODUCE	My Eternal Realities	to become...	leader of Production
RAISE	My Spiritual Being	to become...	leader of Education
REAPPRAISE	Judge Myself in Christ	to become...	leader of Values/Worth
REINFORCE	My Eternal Godly Attributes	to become...	leader of Love's Strength

There are no shortcuts to this pathway, or on this pathway. None of the steps may be missed or left out in any cycle.

You either do them all, or sooner or later you will have none at all. You will then be sent off for rehabilitation as God's goal is to present you to himself (i.e. your Father), faultless! Ju 1:24-25

THERE IS A PATHWAY INTO THE AMBASSADORIAL ROLE OF THE KINGDOM

1. To become an Ambassador you must first be "born" from above and given "citizenship" of the Kingdom of heaven. Jn 3:3, 7; Ph 3:20-21. We are not born from above in order to go to heaven when we die, that's not your decision and nowhere in the Bible are we asked to make that decision, but in order to enter the kingdom/realm of heaven while we live on earth—to become Christ's ambassadors within a spiritually physical cosmic embassy from heaven!
 - a. To live in the spirit is to live in heaven's embassy on earth i.e. the Body of Christ!
 - b. To walk in the spirit is to demonstrate the power and authority of heaven on earth with its Vision, Mission, Values and Charter—Testament—with its signs and wonders we represent of God's Realm. The number one sign is our love for all humans including our enemies i.e. each other.
 - c. To speak by the spirit is to receive the Logos by the Anointing i.e. the Christ we have been given, in the truth of the moment given to us in time.
2. To become a "little child" to "enter" the Kingdom of God. Mk 10:15. We are a child on two fronts in parallel. 1st Co 15 tells us: 'first the natural then the spiritual' while we are on earth!
3. To become "conformed" to the image of Christ your King. Rom 8:29, 12:2
4. By becoming "pregnant" with Christ since you are espoused to Him and letting Christ be "formed" in you. 2Co 11:2, Gal 4:19
5. To develop and bring to full term through fellowship and by beholding and reflecting through your face to face communion with Christ your mirror image, become changed into "the same image" from "glory to glory". The "outward" to the "inward" and the "inward" to the "outward". 2Co 3:18, 4:6-7,16
6. This is what it means to put off the "old Man"—first Adam—and to put on the "new Man"—Last Adam—who is created in righteousness and true holiness after the image of God because the new Man is born from above! Ep 4:22-24, Col 3:9-11
7. And by that which every joint of the members of Christ's body supply to you and also through you to others, "grow yourself up with others" in the "love" of Christ. Ep 4:15-16

8. We do all these life giving kingdom works until we all arrive at the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, at a full grown man, a true ambassador of Christ! Ep 4:10-14, 6:18-20, 2Co 5:17-20

THE NEED TO RULE & REIGN

We can tell how much people want to rule and reign by the level of responsibility they are prepared to shoulder for themselves and then for others.

- A good example of ruling and reigning is your ability to train others and delegate the work in your realm to them, and still remain responsible for it, and to apply to yourself, and keep for yourself, the same rules of engagement you impose on them, as opposed to making people dependent on you for everything as a dictator does.
- Dictators are renowned for their “call to all to sacrifice everything” (excluding themselves). This is a reductionist’s pathway and always leads to poverty and deprivation in every area including hunger and starvation and the eventual downfall of their realm. A dictator is someone who tells people what to do and refuses to listen to their opinions, views or objections and is always correcting them making them feel stupid or uneducated for having a contrary opinion. Eventually they fall by their own dictum—their own dictatorial example. (i.e. They will be judged by their own words and works.)
- Making people dependent on you eventually produces a monolith of dependents that you eventually cannot sustain nor control on your own. By doing this you will set yourself up for a takeover, or other form of loss. It will require you to set up a police force to demand allegiance because you have failed to recognise your rapid degeneration into a weakened state caused first by an exaggerated view and opinion about yourself, and second by your inability or failure to believe in others, to build and change their lives into doing the work better and more competently than you can yourself. This scenario demonstrates a lover first of “position and power” more than a lover of “people and their wellbeing” (family) which comes in second! You are actually teaching people to grasp for position and power at any cost by your own demonstration. Given enough time, someone will usurp and depose you—don’t forget you taught them to do it.
- Those who reign with the responsibility to mentor, train and develop others for the benefit of everyone in their realm will enjoy abundance and the production of wealth beyond their expectations produced by all. Not one person has it altogether—but together we have it all!

You must stop working in the realm/kingdom business/enterprise/church in order to reign! You must work on the realm/kingdom business which is our Father’s business according to Jesus, in order to reign and working on the realm/business is to develop, train and mentor God’s people to do their work as theirs – not do their work as yours, or your work as theirs! Everyone must profit, not just the “leader/pastor/teacher/dictator”.

- If you are working on problems and trying to fix everything yourself, someone will end up planning a takeover in your absence, or create more mischief to keep you busy because they know you can’t let things go by delegating priorities and simply wait for you to wear yourself out and/or for unrest to develop in the realm or workplace.

There are definite steps of attitude, attributes and aptitude we need to be fully aware of, not known, nor found in many workers.

- In general 96% of people/workers are permanently on the defensive (reactive) with just 2% on the offensive (proactive). But both portions have problems—the 96%'ers because many are waiting to be told what to do and where to go so they can respond or react and then defend themselves in what they often falsely believe is an attack or an endorsement! Then there is the “wannabe” 2%'ers who want to make wealth just for themselves to the exclusion of everyone else! How the “wannabe” 2%'ers go about trying to get it, is the problem! Many 2%'ers want the benefits of reigning and ruling just for themselves, without the responsibility to produce wealth and prosperity for all! It just can't happen!
- You need to make the switch—you can make the switch—the question is—do you want to make the switch?
- To join the ranks of the genuine reigning 2% is going to cost you an internal paradigm shift and some pain of unimaginable and unjustifiable misunderstandings by some 98% of the population. You will pay for the learning curve of being willing to embrace all people regardless of how they perceive you. You will also pay to find ways to bring them into a new realm (God's realm—new to them) for everyone's gain and the profound increase of our entire realm of heaven, or you can continue to bear the loss and also the pain of staying where you are. You choose! Who reigns?

The Need to Rule & Reign

1. Is determined due to people for many reasons, both good and evil because of:
 - great causes and the existence of ideological organizations and institutions etc.
 - voids in national and international leadership etc.
 - confusion amongst citizens
 - disarray in communities
 - bickering, quarrelling, back-biting over trivia
 - bullying, brutality and strife in the populace
 - deception, evil scheming, corruption in business and government
 - injustices, inequity, disparity in the social order
 - use and abuse of the weak by the strong
 - illegal, immoral, unethical practices by people in society
 - sorts and rorts in sporting organizations and programmes local and national
 - thieves and rascals in schools, hospitals, and all institutions both religious and secular
 - lastly & obviously, because of the many differing needs, wants, ambitions and desires of people!
2. Because of and regardless of the need, and no matter how good, or how virtuous a cause is, or a group of people may be, leaders are required to rule and reign in order to deal with all of the above wherever, however, whenever and by whomever these issues may arise, or appear.
3. It is about setting in place laws and systems and governing these boundaries and guidelines, parameters of operation, authority and allocated powers etc.

4. Laws and systems to govern and rule by are set in place, first to prevent the abuse of authority and power in the leaders toward others, and then to provide a pathway for everyone to follow by quasi-consent, i.e. whether you like it or not you consent, simply because you've chosen to live/work in this Realm!

HOW TO RULE & REIGN

Listed here are the main forces we humans use to rule over and control other people and ourselves.

- Not all of them are good, but nevertheless we must look at them to understand the impact that using each or any of these forces has upon us.
- They all return to us via many people and especially via the people we use them on.
- You know the old but truthful saying, "What you sow, you will reap"! Eventually! And you always get more seed or fruit than what you sowed—it is the law of nature to always multiply whatever is sown. Some thirty, some sixty, and some, one hundredfold.

How to Rule & Reign

1. By Force

Coercion. Threat. Compelled. Greed. Military strength. No option but to obey, or we'll flatten you.

2. By Negotiation

Tit for Tat. I will do this, if you do that. Reward for service.

3. By False or Useless Education

Creating unmerited IQ standards squewed by the elite to benefit certain people in a community. Plus creating non financially meritorious curriculums to keep the common people in a state of ignorance about money/riches/wealth for the benefit of the elites etc. To create and accentuate equality to make sure there are enough people among the masses to do all of the menial jobs without complaining, as they are too poorly educated to qualify as a voice to be heard—especially when it comes to wages. Poorly educated people are easy to rule and keep equal! Equality is a state of a poorly educated mind, not a human right! We are all equal—aren't we? This is not referring to 'poor people' but 'poorly educated' people.

4. By Humiliation

Shaming into submission. Guilt. Question motives. Ridicule. Mocking achievements. Finding fault.

5. By Offerings

Temptation. Too good to refuse. Something for nothing. W.I.F.M

6. By Law

Impersonal. The law says. Manuals—Rules & regulations. It's not me, I'm just doing my job.

7. By Sacrifice

E.g. Mother Theresa. She stooped to the lowest of society to gain the highest for people.

8. By Wealth

Bought allegiance. User pays. The Benevolent Dictator. Blackmail. The Good Samaritan.

9. By Poverty

Deprivation of Utilities. Human Rights. Starvation. Withholding of resources. Prevention of wealth. Low wages. High Taxes, Scarcity of produce and commodities.

10. By Popularity

Heroes. Idols. He/She is so popular, people want to follow. Role Models.

11. By Replication

Replicating yourself. I am the prototype. To follow me is to be like me! Discipleship.

12. By Mentoring

Advisers. Counsellors. Guides. Tutors. Teachers. Gurus.

13. By Righteousness

Doing what's right 24/7. Not just being seen to be doing what's right.

THE INEVITABILITY OF CHANGE

For the most part, change is so very rapid once we notice change, that it seems we fail to be able to do much about it.

- Reaction is often too slow.
- Response poor and most often inadequate and sometimes too late.
- This is because we do not prepare for change even though it is inevitable and at times very rapid, mainly because we falsely believe it won't affect us much personally!

The Inevitability of Change

1. By Force

Personally, you can't stop it.

2. By Negotiation

Who Dares Wins.

3. By Offering

Are you prepared to pay the price to receive, or wear the cost to refuse.

4. By Law

Impersonal Change. It affects you. You may not even know about it – but the change is there.

5. By Sacrifice

War. Loved ones. Life style choice. Your Job. It also affects many others in a chain reaction.

6. By Wealth

Higher Income. Inheritance. Financial Markets Growth. Real Estate. Business Growth. Investments.

7. By Poverty

Loss of Job. Theft of savings. Gambling. Bankruptcy. Property loss—uninsured. GFM Crash.

8. By Popularity

People beating a path to your door—all kinds of wonderful offers.

9. By Replication

The inability to change. Getting left behind. Redundant education.

10. By Mentoring

Completing educational courses. Personal coaching. Discipling. Regular & relevant studies & updating.

11. By Nature

Natural disasters. Cataclysmic changes beyond our control. To be or not to be?

12. By New (Divine) Nature

Can't not do what's right 24/7. Overcome evil with good. God is Good!

PREPARING FOR CHANGE

1. Most people are not prepared for change because the most important changes that take place that give us the greatest of opportunities for change are not predictable, nor obvious! So they are not ready, nor can they be, and because they don't know what to expect they prepare for nothing.
2. Most passively let themselves be pushed around by change because they have chosen to believe the lie that they can't do anything about it. It is inevitable they say. That's just the way it is! Is it?

This mindset particularly shows up in people in small business, and becomes a disease in large corporate businesses causing decline once these types of people start getting hold of the reins in executive management.

3. But it's worse than that because most people don't realise they have a natural bias toward loss, disease, defeat, failure, financial beatings, spending blowouts, fiscal trouncing, being robbed, shortage, damage, hurt, scarcity etc., all of which must change within if you want sustainable wealth without. ("Everything is so expensive, everyone is against me, I'll never make it, it's alright for you, everyone else is so greedy but me – I'm always sacrificing"). Not even "Nature" carries on like this!
4. Many believe they must live on so little (and especially others), or almost nothing, and they have bought into it from the day they were born because their parents and the whole of their received education set them up for it.
5. This is a reductionist mindset – you must get along with less – must cut costs – reduce more – get less for more money – pursue and sue those who have more etc. If this is your current mindset then you will be running your life, family and your business by it until you change! We are not talking about those reducing waste which is a virtue, but those reducing abundance which causes loss & poverty!

Reign Quote: Reducing waste is a virtue, but reducing abundance causes loss & poverty! ~ John R Fergusson

We need to discuss the question! "How desperate do you think you need to be before you will look for transforming change?"

First let's have a little fun with an example:

- How far will you let others push you to sacrifice, skimp and reduce what they know is abundance but have told you is wasting a precious and finite resource that must be conserved? Are they trying to make you change—for whose benefit? Here is the example:
 - "It is wasteful for you to swim in all of that ocean! You must dig a little hole in the sand – fill it up with ocean water by bucket and then swim in that little hole – look!

REIGN

02/10/2023

you have saved all that ocean! To help you not waste the ocean we will charge you $100 per bucket of ocean water for the hole you so beautifully dug in the sand. To keep you from digging holes everywhere we will place a levy called a 'hole tax' of $100 per week on your beautiful hole. For health reasons you cannot rent out your hole. We will however allow you to trade in holes by purchasing other peoples holes so you can use their bucket allowance for your own hole to keep it fresh and clean – then we will allow you to rent out your hole to others to enjoy, because you can now keep it fresh and clean by our trading scheme. We will of course need to charge you tax on all your rental profits of 38% to help pay for our admin fees we have had to incur because of you being so wasteful initially! Yes, unfortunately it is all your fault we have had to do this!"

Self/Group exercise:

1. In this example, who created the change?
2. List which forces and methods (see page 21) have been used to bring about change?
3. How easy is it to impose change on others?
 - List the rewards
 - List the penalties
 - List the benefits
 - List the wastes
 - List the savings
4. What motivates you for change to take place within you?
 - Short term Penalty + Long term Reward?
 - Long term Penalty + Short term Reward?
 - Long term Penalty + Long term Reward?
 - Short term Penalty + Short term Reward?
 - Penalty only?
 - Reward only?
5. To bring about real and lasting change within our being to increase our abilities and capabilities, gifts, talents and expertise for the benefit of our family, people, business, communities of species and our planet, do we look for:
 - Pain in order to Gain?
 - Time Constraints?
 - Space Confinement?
 - Energy Restrictions?
 - Fees, Fines and Penalties?
 - Freedom Limitations?
 - Technological Policing?
 - Curfews on Civil Liberties?
 - Personal Isolation via hi-tech illusions?

REIGN

02/10/2023

- Own no land you can call home?
- Create an illusion of extreme value by withholding abundance as scarce i.e. land?
- A Herd Mentality for a Cause?
- A Ghetto Mindset as the 'New Comfort'?
- A High-rise Narrow-minded City View as the 'New Trees' to live in?
- Reins on Riches (Monies/Wealth) personally received?
- Restraints on Riches (Monies/Wealth) personally outgoing?
- Education, Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, Prudence, Relationship Connections, Generosity, Freedom, Support, Information, Communication, Mentoring? (Q.W.N. here)

Let's look at this question again! Question: How desperate do you think you need to be before you will look for ways to hasten change?

1. Here's a secret (please don't tell people or they will be most upset with you and complain how unfair life is), but this is why so many are so easy to rule over – they're slaves by programmed ignorance and the withholding of selective information and knowledge by others!
2. But don't make the mistake of making them reign to help them – they are not ready yet – they must first change the centre of reference within from, "I must climb the kingdom business/organisation/corporate ladder/be in the public service etc., so others can look after me because I have so little", to "I must climb the kingdom/corporate ladder/be in the public service etc., so I can look after others and help them change because I have so much and what I don't have I will find and as the needs grow I will change to meet them".
3. People who blame others for their lot in life are gamblers – big gamblers! Can you imagine the huge gamble a person takes on when they make others responsible for them and the outcome of their lives and living conditions? It is entirely indicative of how little they value themselves, their very own person and being! I am a commodity, or tool, for others to use or abuse, is what they are proclaiming. It is socially engineered ignorance; it is absolutely shameful, but unfortunately very common.
4. The first step in preparing for change is accepting full responsibility for your total being, inside and out! For your whole of life and living! The "Blame Game" is the "Loser's Mantra"! Don't give it airplay!

OK, it is quite clear that we cannot go around blaming others, but what about others blaming you? Especially when the buck stops with you!

- Well, you are a gambler also if you are responsible for those around you and have not put in place the ways and means to ensure the realm you reign and rule over is secure from attack from both within and without, and for this you must ensure your team/family/kingdom business is becoming stronger, more and more equipped and reliable and trustworthy of your realm as an ambassador.

- Openness, directed freedom and extraordinary communication and relationship with every one in your Father's kingdom/realm is the foundation for unparalleled security! Secrecy, insular hierarchy, defensive positioning, adopting a "need/don't need" to know stance will foster insecurity and distracting posturing and building of personal protective walls and exacerbate the mischief of withholding important and relevant information, which will leave the family, kingdom business, company, organization or institution vulnerable to insecurity and loss of proprietary knowledge as people leave you for the wrong reasons.
- Because of constant change we need to be at the forefront in helping family members, colleagues or ambassadorial staff to grow and change to suit the current and future growth and expansion with skills and training in the body/workplace environment, or they will leave and you will be left not only with an exchange of personnel, but a period of transformation and relationship development with your newly acquired members and/or employed persons brought in to replace them insitu.

It is change, or face exchange and to repeat the cycle with new people.

Learn to bear full responsibility for yourself – your Being. "It's me in my world with God – therefore I must ask myself with the Spirit of Lord; what am I doing about preparing myself to adjust, develop and change to meet both the obvious and the unexpected in order for me to still reach the goals and full potential given by God."

1. Become a person of great resource within in accordance to your/God's Vision.
 - a. Change your attitude and your response/reaction toward inevitability. Nature, competition and things may appear inevitable (like GFC's, new opposing ministries, businesses/companies, wind, flood, fire and earthquakes, or the earth's rotation for example) but our response or reaction to them does not need to be. If you are blaming these events for any of your issues or problems, you're already looking in the wrong direction for answers & solutions.

Reign Quote: "Within your Vision are found all answers and solutions." ~ John R Fergusson

- a. Refocus on your Vision daily – It is the Blue-print, the Plan, the Origin, the Roadmap and Pathway of Purpose. It defines clearly the foundation and basis of where you will start, or what you will need to do to deal with all the challenges and changes, old and new.
- b. Keep rekindling the 'Pioneering Spirit' in order to stay at the cutting edge – to keep going where no one has gone before in breaking new ground, establishing new beachheads and changing tired religious, cultural and other habits etc. Pioneering puts great demands on uncommon and untapped resources which you must have within and can only come from the source of your Vision.

Re Christ's Vision

A great person is made up of:

- Bearing full and total responsibility which grows into greatness.
- Building up internal resources continually which grow into greatness.
- Managing “defining moments” and matching them with poise i.e. self-control and purpose which grows into greatness.
- Having capacity to endure as a pioneer which leads to greatness.
- Having uncommon and untapped resources within, with freedom to drawdown and change, which grows greatness.
- Recognising seductive charm and lures of praise and applaud is the “Bling” of the Tinseltown World, which if participated in distracts from and diminishes greatness.
- Knowing that when people “exclusively tell good reports” something is usually being hidden, which if you remain blinded to, will undermine greatness.
- Knowing when people “only tell bad reports” it is usually a diversion, or rumour, gossip, hearsay, which if you participate in will corrupt and taint greatness. Very rarely is it intelligence so you must do your homework. Don't just ignore it.

Put a stop to it either way by making the bearer/s and yourself accountable for both good and bad news!
